

Why Auctioneers Choose Willow Bend Title

- We are highly versed in preparing title work prior to receiving a contract & have experience corresponding with multiple bidders so good faith funds are coordinated prior to auctions.
- We have the ability to write multi-million dollar policies for luxury property auctions.
- We have become the exclusive title company choice that auctioneers and their realtor and investor clients rely on for quick, seamless transactions.
- We have management staff who are certified in property auctions & have experienced the auction process of selling properties first hand.
- We have existing partner relationships that keep us knowledgeable in the processes & trends of property auctions.
- We believe in the success of property auctions and understand the benefits they bring to buyers and sellers in the real estate market.
